

DR. KRISTY SHUDA MCGUIRE

- Dean of Biomedical Studies, The Wistar Institute

EDUCATION

- B.S., Biology, Loyola University Maryland
- M.S. Science of Instruction, Drexel University
- Ph.D., Genetics, Thomas Jefferson University

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Joined Wistar in 2019.
- Oversees Wistar's Hubert J.P. Schoemaker Education and Training Center that includes programs for high school students to postdoctoral fellows.
- Creates and expands programs to meet new employment demands in the life science sector.
- Leads Wistar's Biomedical Technician Training (BTT) Program, a registered pre-apprenticeship, that has expanded to multiple regional community colleges, and the Fox Biomedical Research Technician (BRT) Apprenticeship.
- Developed partnership with Cheyney University of Pennsylvania, the nation's first Historically Black College or University (HBCU), offering students Biomedical Research Methods and Life Science Innovation courses as well as internships.

AVAILABLE FOR MEDIA INTERVIEWS ON

- Wistar's Biomedical Technician Training (BTT) Program
- Future of the Philadelphia life science sector
- Workforce development programs with partners to create pipelines to biotech careers
- Encouraging students from underrepresented communities to pursue STEM careers
- Making changes to science curriculum in real time as in-demand technology evolves

A SAMPLE OF DR. SHUDA MCGUIRE'S MEDIA APPEARANCES

- Philadelphia high school students get hands-on experience at Wistar Institute, CBS July 2023
- Meet Dr. Kristy Shuda McGuire, Dean of Biomedical Studies, Wistar 2020
- Discovery Starts with Me: Kristy Shuda McGuire, Ph.D., Select Greater Philadelphia Council 2022

CONTACT

Darien Sutton

Director, Media Relations, Communications & Marketing
dsutton@wistar.org
C: 215.870.2048 | O: 215.898.3988

The Wistar Institute

3601 Spruce Street | Philadelphia 19104
wistar.org